At any rate, Governor Barnes is getting a good run for his money.

The Capital evidently thinks Mr. Coyle is running for mayor for publication only.

WHENEVER Admiral Dewey wants anything he doesn't dodge behind a round-robin.

The morning Capital has shaved out its vocabulary and resumed its prevarications.

The Republican city ticket contains but little more than a job lot of noise and colorful color.

SENATOR HAYES is putting in his time at Enid looking after his bull calf and a political opening.

BEFORE this thing is over Mayor Berkey will experience trouble in keeping his votes on straight.

THE American soldiers in the Philippines are killing several thousand dollars worth of Filipinos daily.

CAPERS, colored, is a Republican candidate for city clerk. It's a good thing for the ticket that Capers is not twins.

It's high time for the Democrats of the city to take the bit in the mouth and politically decolorize the municipality.

AFTER a long season of stage thieving, Senator Biddison has retired to the rear of the platform to rearrange his intellect.

SENATOR BIDDISON is relieved of all worry regarding his political future. The people of Pawnee have kindly undertaken that task for him.

THAT low, rasping sound, coming from the direction of Gardfield county, is merely Senator Havens pulling the fuzz off his political aspirations.

A MERCHANT on the West side makes the statement that he did not know his clerk was given to thieving until he was elected to the legislature.

THAT Biddison investigation report, which was to be fired into Washington so swiftly, has either been delayed in transmission or held up for postage.

An Austrian, as developed an apparatus for stamping bills. It cannot be much of an improvement on the plan Selkay used on those Cervera and down at Santiago.

REPRESENTATIVE McCLINTOCK is out in an interview with the legislature. Mr. McClintock's public career was heavily charged with alfalfa hay and keen disappointments.

THE Republican city ticket is both McCordless and Perkinsian, but nevertheless the negro voters are again admonished not to sell their votes for a mess of "partridges."

AN Oklahoma City paper talks of the freaks in the Fifth assembly. There were just three freaks in the last legislature. Walls was one and "Grinnell" Jones the other two.

ACCORDING to newspaper reports Representative Walls took Senator Hutto for a cheap gig. It is alleged that Hutto testified before the grand jury that Walls tried to bribe him for $25.

REV. HALL, a revivalist, who has been doing business in Kay county, has fallen from grace. In his enthusiasm, it seems, he converted some chaste securities that did not belong to him.

GUTHRIE needs more water. The water supply is already dangerously low and the lawn sprinkling season has not yet begun. The easiest way to settle the water question is to dam the Cottonwood.

RON HENDERSON has been nominated by the Republicans for street commissioner of Guthrie. This is an important office, and not one to bear experiments. By the way, who is Robt Henderson? Was he overlooked by the agents who recently took a colony of colored people to Liberia?

A man who came in from Perkins today very cautiously argued that Adolbert Hughes "was a lawyer." It is a shrewd state of mind to argue with a man who starts out to arrive at unpleasant conclusions.

The turkeys down at Oklahoma Town are feeding Oom Overholser on frankincense and myrrh and con talk. He is a candidate for mayor, and they evidently expect him to separate himself from that $25,000 certificate bluff.

SOONER or later Agnaldo will be compelled to fall back on the excuse of the Spanish officer who declared that "we won a splendid victory, but the enemy perished in fighting after they were defeated, and we were compelled to retreat."

Despite the fact that Frank Olmuth is a candidate, Police Judge Mock intends to make the race on the Republican ticket. Having no record to stand on, Mr. Mock has had himself vaccinated and baptized and will try to slip through as an immune.

The collars worn on the intellect of Adolbert Hughes, Republican nominee for city attorney, will be very much de mated on April 4. Mr. Hughes is against the East Guthrie claim holders and East Guthrie votes will soak him good and plenty.

HOW OKLAHOMA SUFFERS.

The factional fight in the Republican party has not only everlastingly electrocuted that party organization, but has cast a cloud over the fair name of the territory and dimmed her commercial glory. The many tad reports going out of the territorial auditor and the scandalous charges hurled back and forth by the opposing factions, has given Oklahoma an unenviable notoriety which a decade of time cannot efface. The whole country has begun to regard Oklahoma as a nest of thieves and a whole place to remain away from.

If the truth were known the one thing that has kept Oklahoma from the enjoyments of statehood has been the activity of political scoundrels—men who are not interested in the ultimate welfare of the territory, but who came here as jobless stiffs hoping for a take-off and failing to fulfill their desires entered on a ceaseless campaign of vilification against everything and everybody, good, bad and indifferent, political and commercial. These blatant poisoners can be found in every town in the territory. They are continually mouthing. They belong to all parties. They are devoid of conscience and decency. Money which should go to support a family is squandered in buying and furthering charges and affidavits. According to their theory every man holding office is a thief and should be exposed and ousted from office forthwith.

This fashion of the knackers does not only prevail now, but it obtained during the Democratic regime. During the Cleveland administration the territory was kept in crepe on week days and Sundays, now it wears mourning every day in the month including holidays. The territory has two beautiful black eyes, administered by political ghoul.

The recent legislative investigation hurt the territory much more than it did Barnes and his administration. Outside people argued that if the administration was rotten the people must be in the same fix, and then withdrew their interests and securities accordingly.

As THE LEADER maintained it would be, the investigation was a dismal farce; a legislative investigation was never known to investigate.

If Barnes and his officials are corrupt and rotten the grand jury is the proper body to ascertain the fact and deal with them according to law. The grand jury does its work without a flare of property trumpet, and as a rule, reaches results; a legislative investigation never. An indictment not only means prosecution, but summary removal from office.

The outside world takes reports as they come and forgets to abstract the venom of factions and the political motives which to a great degree inspire charges.

As proof that the territory suffers from the mouthpiece of ill-governed and factional scoundrels, a Guthrie gentleman is in receipt of a letter from which the following excerpt is taken: "You must have a deal of a place down there; that it is said that they flood, then gradually a mixture of outlaws and law-abiding men and last taxation, then a broken, crumbling legislature and a gang of thieves in the most prominent man. A couple of men who came from Guthrie last week say that Governor has been indicted for robbery and that your territorial auditor is serving a sentence in jail for embezzlement. If these reports be true I am not sure how you can expect outside investment companies to handle securities and securities with any degree of safety."

And that is the situation of Oklahoma.

LEGISLATIVE FRUIT.

The legislative millgrubs, who were selected by the majority of the territory to codify the laws passed by the recent assembly, have encountered a fortuitous carnival. At the rate of $5.00 per day they will place in order the twenty-four laws passed by the Fifth assembly. In addition to the five members composing the committee two clerks will be required to aid

In this arduous task. It's a good thing, job begotten in dire want and nurtured in straggance.

SETTLE THE SPANISH BILL.

If council bill No. 1 is a law it has been grossly misused. Without number since the bill was passed, it has been used to make a very little attention to the measure and the traffic in the territory as of old. It is high time the matter was brought to the attention of the courts and settled once for all.

Agents make big money—bring our rubber collars, cuffs and snags (snags) territory going fast, write for terms. Francis H. Gordon Manufacturing Co., Harrisburg, Pa.

GEN. WHEELER

Refutes Charges Made by a History Writer.

Washington, March 20.—Adjutant General Wheeler today made public the statement which General Wheeler has called upon to make, in order, as he says, to refute certain allegations which referred to the cavalry division which he had the honor to command.

The statement is exceedingly enlightening, making really another history of the campaign before Santiago, and it is accompanied by an appendix made of letters from officers who were in connection with General Wheeler in his operations to support the allegations he makes.

General Wheeler begins with the declaration that some statements were made before the war investigation commission regarding the battle of La Guasima, which do great injustice to the part of the army which fought in that battle. General Wheeler states that General Wheeler was guilty of disobedience of orders. General Wheeler says that to remain silent and neglect to refute the unfounded charges made by Bonal would be to delay in order to get the statement of Major General Miles, the commanding general, that he makes the explanation now submitted.

The history of the movements begins with a quotation of a statement made by General Lawton before the war commission to the effect that he had been directed by the general commanding to proceed to and capture Siboney. General Wheeler tells how the troops landed, how he had to get the statement of Major General Miles, the commanding general, that he makes the explanation now submitted.

HOW SPANIARDS WERE FOUND.

The Spaniards were found in the same place as the next morning, three miles from Siboney and General Wheeler gives a description of the action that followed. He says that the dynamite failed to reach him and it was for a time very doubtful whether the men in front of him were Spaniards or Cubans. In an hour the fight was on, but the enemy retreated before the onslaught of the Americans.

General Wheeler says the statement that he had sold General Kent of his desire to retreat was absolutely untrue, adding "I was emphatic and positive and earnest against retreating from the time we took San Juan all until July 16, when Santiago surrendered."

He attacked General Kent's denial of the same statement, along with considerable other evidence of the same character. He says the publicity of the error he seeks to correct has brought to him many offers from the army familiar with the facts to write him on the subject in refutation and he adds in the shape of an appendix to his own report a number of letters from such officers. He quotes General Lawton in a letter to himself as pronouncing his "wherever" history of the campaign, "a very just and accurate description of what occurred," and he quotes Governor Roosevelt as follows: "I have read Bonal's book and it makes me extremely indignant. He seems to have selected out as an especial object of attack. Of the Guasima fight he knows absolutely nothing."

More Bodies Recovered. New York, March 20.—A large force of men worked on the ruins of the Windsor hotel tonight. Part of the rear wall and chimney on the 4th street side was still standing at a late hour, smoke was pouring from the chimney, which extends to the basement showing that fire still smolders in that part of the ruins. The workmen excavated slowly and with great care. The debris was thrown from the space occupied by the hotel to the sidewalk. Crowds of people gathered to see the ruins as they were being pulled down.

At mid eight 30 laborers who had been digging in the ruins were relieved by another gang of 20. No other body has been found since 5 in the morning, when the workmen came across the remains of two charred bodies.

The men worked all day on three sides of the old hotel, Fifth Avenue, 4th and 5th streets. From the three sides on which the workmen are engaged the ruins and at mid night, been gone over for about 20 feet from the building line. The first body taken out today was from the 4th street side, the second from the Fifth Avenue side, close by what had been the main entrance. They were merely fragments of bodies. Neither having feet nor arms. These fragments were taken to the morgue, where they were ticketed as bodies "Q" and "R" and placed in the section especially set aside for the hotel victims. These two being the total number of bodies so far recovered up to 12. Besides these there are at least six persons who were seen to jump from the roof and windows while the hotel was burning, and of whose bodies no trace has yet been come upon.
